EXPERIENCE SNAPSHOT

My entire career has focused on preparing leaders to thrive in disruptive environments.

Coached top, middle, and entry-level leaders in for-profit, nonprofit, and government organizations.

Served in board leadership roles in organizations focused on social change, poverty, justice, arts, and local food.

Co-founded a Center for Women's Equity, Development, and Leadership.

Coordinated large-scale, high-profile change projects across Asia, Europe, and the United States.

Led teams and projects in change management, leadership development, and curriculum development roles.

Launched three new degree programs in data science, data analytics, and business administration and helped secure a 4 million dollar program endowment.
